GUIDELINE FOR THE PARENT/ VISITOR

- ❖ The school is committed to provide a secure learning environment for its students and staff and is under 24X7 CCTV surveillance. In addition, the following guidelines for the visitor are developed to ensure the safety of our school community.
- ❖ Parents to carry their I-card for entry in the school and visitor's to present a valid identification card on arrival.
- ❖ Parents/Visitors who want to meet the teacher or incharge or principal must take prior appointment. Parents may please refer to the appointment timings given in the Almanac. No appointment is necessary for PTM days, School functions and events.
- ❖ If parents/guardians need to pick up their child before the regular dispersal time, they should be call or notify the school office first, before 11:00 a.m.
- ❖ Parents/guardians are not to go directly to the classroom to pick up their child. Your child will be called down to the reception for early dispersal.
- ❖ Visitors to deposit prohibited item at the guard room if in possession of the same. The prohibited item is given at the entry gate.
- ❖ All visitors must follow school rules and model appropriate behavior. If a visitor engages in disruptive or inappropriate behavior, the school may restrict or deny future visits.
- ❖ In keeping with our students dress code, visitors should present themselves in a mature and sensible manner during any school visit, meeting and events.
- ❖ Guards on duty are their duty for the safety and security of the students. Your cooperation is solicited in this regard.
